

St. Theresa's Catholic High School
ENG 2P

This course emphasizes key reading, writing, oral communication, and thinking skills that students need for success in secondary school and their daily lives. Students will study plays, short stories, and newspaper and magazine articles, and will describe and create media works. An important focus will be the correct use of spoken and written language. Also, through the study of literature, students will be encouraged to develop a confident and positive sense of self, as well as values based upon Catholic teaching.
